

Summary of LB 749

- Sec. 9 A foreign or domestic corporation may file appeal with Lancaster District Court if the Secretary of State refuses to file document
- Sec. 12 It is a Class I Misdemeanor to sign a false document for filing with secretary of state
- Sec. 29 The venue for suit against a corporation by shareholder, employee, etc. is district court of county where principal office or registered agent is located.
- Sec. 55 District court may order holding of special shareholders meeting upon application of shareholder.
- Sec. 75-82 Derivative proceeding is a civil action on the rights of the corporation.

Court may appoint a panel to determine the best interests of the corporation.
- Sec. 83 Court may appoint custodian(s) or receiver(s), issue injunctions, shall hold hearing after notice, has jurisdiction over corporation and property wherever located, may appoint individual or corporation to transact business, may order compensation or disbursement of assets
- Sec. 92 Court may remove director
- Sec. 110-119 Indemnification in proceedings against director of corporation